

Charity darts marathon

Source: Grantham Journal, UK 08 April 2008

Totemic employees in Grantham England run for Help Lesotho

Tuesday, 3pm - DARTS players from Grantham company Totemic aim to score 100,000 points in a 24-hour darts marathon starting at noon on Friday.

The team has set up the challenge to raise money for company charity Help Lesotho, which provides aid for the south African country.

Philip Rann and Lianne Tapson organised the event, and the team will consist of Chris Noon, Carl Stokes, Simon Linforth, Jonathan Green, Natalie Botwright, Christine Mottley, Janine Mottley, Katie Maples, Emma Clayton-Hanks, Marie Jackson, Emma Skeith, Nigel Skeith and Paul Hanks.

The event will take place at the White Lion, Bridge End Road. As well as looking for sponsorship, the team will raffle digital cameras and other gadgets donated by Totemic.

The team is also hoping to receive sponsorship.